required in the draft notification received with l. u. c. apart ~~from~~ from the verbal alterations. The new Stamp duties may be levied from 1. 4. 23 and this has been provided in clause (4) of the draft notification.
Clause (7) of the Collector's draft
seems to be superfluous.
Clause (11) of the Collector's draft
may be omitted, for though no rules have yet been framed under Section 3 of the Suits Valuation provide for the contingency of rules being issued hereafter. The unnecessary.

Under section 35 of the Stamp Act (II of 1899), instruments not duly stamped are not receivable in evidence nor can they be acted upon. This would invalidate all documents on which stamp duty has been paid on the old rates from the 9th April to the 17th May. I do not think it would be fair to ask the parties to pay the deficient stamp duty. They did not know the new law and our registration officer, who could ordinarily have put them right, did not himself know it. I think the most equitable course would be to move the Government of India to issue a notification under the Foreign Jurisdiction Order in Council declaring that entry No. 90 in the schedule to their Notification of the 9th April 1923 shall be deemed to have come into operation in the Civil & Military Station from the 16th May (i.e. the date of the reopening of the Civil Courts - from which date the new rate of court fees was introduced) and entry No. 91 from the 18th May, the date from which the Sub Registrar gave effect to the new rates of Stamp duty.

ENHANCEMENT OF COURT-FEES IN THE ADMINISTERED AREAS IN INDIAN STATES.

Sir,

I am directed to say that, in connection with the existing financial stringency, one of the measures taken by the various provincial Governments to increase their revenue has been to increase the rate of Court-fees by an amendment of the Court-Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870). The Punjab Legislative Council has just passed such a measure and it is being brought Madras - Madras Act 5 of 1922.

Bombay - Bombay Act 1 of 1922.
Bengal - Bengal Act 4 of 1922.
Bihar & Orissa. Bihar & Orissa
Act 2 of 1922.
Assam. - Assam Act 2 of 1922.
(United Provinces Government are also taking the necessary action to get their Court-Fees Act through).

into force in the Punjab with effect from the 15th January 1923. Acts passed by other Local Governments are cited in the margin.

2. The Government of India consider that Court fees should similarly be increased in the administered areas in Indian States. This can be done by substituting for the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), as applied to such areas, the enactment passed by the Governor's province nearest to each area, and I am accordingly to request that the necessary draft notification may be submitted as soon as possible

Stamp Act, as applied to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. Ref.1590, dated the 28th April 1923, I am directed to state that the Government of India apparently omitted some of the proposed amendments because they deemed them to be unnecessary. No reasons have been given by the Subject:-

Amendments in the Court Fees Act & the Stamp Act as applied to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

Sir,

S.52.

I have the honour to refer to Notification No.547-1205-I, dated the 9th April 1923, of the Foreign & Political Department.

2. A copy of the above notification was communicated to the District Judge, who is also the Registrar of Assurances, Civil & Military Station of Bangalore, on the 17th April 1923.
The District Court had, however, been closed for the annual recess in continuation of Easter holidays and re-opened on the 16th May 1923. The notification referred to above was communicated by the Registrar to the Sub-Registrar in the Civil & Military Station on the 18th May 1923, with the result that stamp duty on documents ^{entered} prescribed for registration up to that day was paid at the old rates.

3. Under section 35 of the Stamp Act, II of 1899, as applied to the station

Station, instruments not duly stamped are not receivable in evidence nor can they be acted upon. This would invalidate all documents on which stamp duty has been paid on the old rates upto the 17th May 1923 inclusive. It would not be fair to subject only such documents to the penalty etc. prescribed by section 35 of the Stamp Act. I ^{therefor} request that, if there is no objection, a notification may issue declaring that entry No.90 in the schedule to Notification No.318-D., dated the 16th January 1917 of the Foreign and Political Department shall be deemed to have come into operation in the Station from the 16th May 1923, (i.e. the date of the reopening of the Civil Courts after recess from which date the new rates of court-fees were introduced) and entry No.91 in the above schedule from the 18th May 1923, the date from which the Sub-Registrar gave effect to the new rates of stamp duty. I accordingly enclose a draft notification for approval of the Government of India.
